Cardiff Metropolitan University

Cardiff Metropolitan University courses are career-oriented and aim to prepare students for a professional future of the highest calibre.

Cardiff Metropolitan University (Cardiff Met) was formerly known as University of Wales Institute, Cardiff (UWIC).

A recent Times Good University Guide described the UWIC (Cardiff Met) "The best new university in the UK". In addition, The Sunday Times ranked UWIC as the leading new university in Wales for the fourth year running, they wrote:

"UWIC [Cardiff Met] has consistently been among the best-performing modern universities in the UK ... where students acquire skills that make them consistently among the most employable graduates."

In the most recent assessment, the results of the UK Research Assessment Exercise saw UWIC (Cardiff Met) ranked seventh of all new universities across the UK, in the process achieving the second highest increase in ranking of all UK universities.

Additionally, in 2010 UWIC (Cardiff Met) was ranked second by I-Graduate out of over 100 British universities in terms of satisfaction for international students. This incorporates categories such as teaching quality, student facilities, student services, library, general atmosphere and experience.

Reasons to Study an MBA

Building A Career

This is not only an MBA, but one from a reputable British university which can enhance career prospects. Cardiff Metropolitan University is a respected educational establishment, highly rated by, among others, The Times Good University Guide

Advancement

MBAs provide a passport to promotion opportunities from junior to senior level management in multinational companies.

Employers' Preference

The current trend is for employers to recruit MBA postgraduates rather than undergraduates. Therefore, an MBA qualification will be a significant advantage on any CV.

Increased Earnings

Research provides evidence that employees with an MBA qualification command higher salaries. This is true whether you work in Asia, the Middle East or Europe.

Employers' Recognition

Employers recognise the fact that an MBA is the advanced business degree of choice and provides the employee with the necessary skills and understanding of commercial operations to contribute to an internationally viable enterprise.

Critical Thinking

An MBA provides the essential tools for advanced critical thinking creating a platform for successful interaction with colleagues from different backgrounds and areas of experience. This improves an overall strategic, tactical and operational understanding of corporate structures.

Self-Actualisation

The MBA qualification is a means of improving confidence in self-attainment, both commercially and financially.

Dynamism

MBAs provide the necessary transferable skills to cope with the management of change in a work environment. The MBA course specification includes an emphasis on the development of entrepreneurship, business ethics, innovation and leadership skills.

Mobility In The Global Job Market

Having an MBA qualification can ensure greater employee mobility and increase opportunities within the global job market.

The LSC Group

Based in London, the London School of Commerce Group (or LSC Group) includes the London School of Commerce (LSC) and the School of Business and Law (SBL). We also have overseas campuses in Kenya, Serbia, Bangladesh, Malaysia, Sri Lanka and Vietnam.

The colleges have a current enrolment of over 7,000 students from over 130 different countries studying for undergraduate and postgraduate degrees (both Research and Taught) in the areas of Business, IT and Management.

We are proud of the high level of success of its students, their excellent standard of attendance and commitment and the significantly large numbers of former students who have developed successful business careers throughout the world.

In association with our partner universities, the LSC Group has the largest campus-based MBA course in Europe with over 2,500 students. It is bigger than many UK Universities and has larger numbers of international students than all but 10 of the major universities in the UK.

The LSC Group is a highly successful business in its own right and employs over 400 highly qualified Academic and Administration staff including marketing and support staff based in over 40 countries worldwide.

The LSC Group also holds ownership of a preparatory school located in Cornwall, England that provides education for children up to the age of 18. As a group we therefore operate in the full spectrum of primary, secondary and tertiary education.
