University of Wales Trinity Saint David

The University of Wales Trinity Saint David (UWTSD) enjoys the reputation of being one of the oldest and youngest Universities in the UK. It was formed through the merger of three institutions in Wales under the oldest Royal Charter in Wales and England, after the universities of Oxford and Cambridge. His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, is the University's Royal Patron.

UWTSD's main campuses are situated in Swansea, Lampeter and Carmarthen, as well as the Wales International Academy of Voice located in Cardiff, Wales's capital city. The University also has a campus in London primarily for international students.

The UWTSD Group includes its Constituent Colleges Coleg Sir Gâr and Coleg Ceredigion as part of a dual sector group structure delivering both further and higher education. Together the Group delivers clear, tangible benefits for learners, employers, industry and communities by offering a range of programmes from entry level to post-doctoral research.

WESTMINSTER INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

Westminster International College (WIC) is a division of the London School of Commerce Group of Colleges. As a division of the LSC Group, WIC delivers courses based on the same sound British educational system practiced by tertiary educational institutions across the UK. Our aim is to meet your goal of obtaining internationally recognized high quality education, at affordable fees.

WIC's aim is to help you achieve your goal of a high-quality education at a very affordable fee. The internationally recognised programmes are well-structured to equip you with relevant study skills and business-orientated critical thinking.

Westminster International College is located in Subang Jaya, Selangor, the premier educational hub in Malaysia. The College is an approved educational institution by Ministry of Education (MoE) and the National Accreditation Board in Malaysia (MQA).

COURSE CONTENT

The programme integrates theoretical study and application to real world cases, in each module's teaching strategy and in the direct interaction with the University's external partnerships, including employer groups, professional associations, and international partners and spin off entrepreneurial activities.

In particular our business management graduates have analytical, research, information technology, interpersonal and cross-cultural communication skills.

The skills of managing ICT, communication with peers and external organisations, numeracy, problem-solving, interacting in teams, ethical reasoning, critical appraisal, self-management and leadership have been particularly applauded. Students' progress through the programme ensures that they become increasingly self-confident and capable of managing their own learning. Graduates will have developed self-confidence and the ability to work in diverse environments and communicate at a wide variety of levels.
